VOLUNTEER FACILITATOR APPLICATION

Thank you for your interest in becoming a volunteer Facilitator with Writers Collective of Canada (WCC). We currently provide virtual and on-site community writing workshops in Toronto, Peel, Montreal, and Ottawa. We extend opportunity, dignity, and respect to everyone who wishes to write, celebrating authentic voice inclusive of race, ethnicity, class, age, gender identity, sexual orientation, physical ability, and mental health.

Our extensive training program supports volunteer workshop Facilitators.

All Facilitator candidates are expected to:

- 1) Read Writing Alone and with Others by Pat Schneider - a valuable resource that provides the core values and structure of what we do. Order online or through your local bookstore!
- 2) Watch the introductory video on our website at:
<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=TX4YN5j9gRs>.
- 3) Attend at least one virtual workshop before training. Please review the calendar at www.wcc-cec.org/workshops for our current workshops.
- 4) Complete the full weekend of training.
- 5) Attend a 1 ½ hour post-training virtual workshop delivery information session (if applicable).
- 6) Report attendance and stay connected with the Director of Volunteers and Programs and the Manager of Volunteers and Programs.

The next virtual training session is scheduled for:

Friday evening, September 20th, all day Saturday and Sunday, September 21st and 22nd, 2024.
Hours will be confirmed.

Space is limited. Preference will be given to those who have:

1. A commitment to and understanding of WCC's philosophy of creating a respectful and positive environment where people can write and share their stories.
2. Availability to facilitate workshops on-site (IRL) in Toronto, Peel, Montreal, and Ottawa.
3. Ties to the community/ies you are interested in working with.
4. A history of community engagement.
5. Experience with writing groups as a participant or facilitator.
6. Facilitation, leadership, or teaching experience.

Graduates will co-facilitate with experienced Facilitators before leading their own workshops — 1½ - 2 hours per week.

A minimum commitment of 10 weeks (not necessarily consecutive) is required.

Describe the role creative writing plays in your life.

Would you be comfortable writing with others in a confidential setting about your family, your history, your scars and your secrets? Can you write deeply and authentically without having to be the best writer in the room?

Briefly describe any previous volunteer and/or social service experience you have had.

What experiences have you had in writing workshops as a participant and/or as a facilitator?

What does the phrase “safe space for writing” mean to you?

In your opinion, what is the distinction between “teaching” and “leading” or “facilitating”?

What life experiences have you had that will be helpful to you in leading writing workshops with WCC, or that have led you to want to volunteer with us?

If you have previous facilitation or teaching experience, whether in writing or other areas, are you open to learning and practicing new ways of facilitating?

What groups are you most interested in working with? Are there any groups that you do not feel comfortable working with? (This question is purely to determine your interests for possible future placements and bears no weight in considering your application)
